

Environmental Auditing

Course Workload		Assessment form (examination/ graded test/ ungraded test)
ECTS	Hours
3	108	Exam

The discipline is oriented towards obtaining practical skills necessary for both the implementation of an environmental management system and for conducting an environmental audit at an enterprise. Students will familiarise themselves with international and national standards in the field of environmental management, learn the main stages and procedure of environmental auditing, as well as the requirements for an environmental auditor.

Course structure:

1. Basic principles and standard methodology ISO 19011

- 1.1. Brief audit history
- 1.2. Terminology
- 1.3. Seven auditing principles

2. Competence and evaluation of auditors

- 2.1. Personal qualities
- 2.2. Knowledge and skills
- 2.3. Auditor's assessment

3. Audit program management

- 3.1. Objectives of the audit
- 3.2. Develop an audit program
- 3.3. Implementation of the audit program
- 3.4. Monitoring the audit program

4. Conducting an audit of the environmental management system

- 4.1. Preparing for an audit
- 4.2. Conducting an audit
- 4.3. Preparing an audit report